

HONORABLE RICHARD A. JONES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

AMANDIP SINGH DHILLON,

Plaintiff,

v.

JEH JOHNSON, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C15-1532RAJ

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the Government's Motion to Dismiss and/or for Summary Judgment (Dkt. # 13) and Plaintiff Amandip Singh Dillon's ("Plaintiff") "Motion for Summary Judgement [sic] to Enforce ABT Settlement or Transfer/Consolidate With ABT Case CV11-2108RAJ" (Dkt. # 16). The matter was transferred to the Court on August 22, 2016 after the Plaintiff acknowledged that the mandamus issues raised in his complaint were moot. See Dkt. # 22 at 4.

The only remaining issue – apparently – was whether the court should find Plaintiff to be a member of the ABT settlement class. The Government's contended that the court was without jurisdiction to review the merits of the USCIS' decision to deny relief under the ABT Settlement Agreement. See Dkt. # 18 at 6; Dkt. # 21 at 4. Given that the matter was transferred before this Court on August 22, 2016, that argument no longer holds water. Dkt. # 22.

In other words, the issues presented in the Parties' respective motions are now moot. As a result, the Court will simply deny both motions. Dkt. # 13 & 16.

ORDER – 1

1        Beyond this, it is not entirely clear how the Parties intend that the Court to
2 proceed. To that end, the Court ORDERS the Parties to meet and confer within 14 days
3 of the date of this Order discuss the issues they believe remain pending before the Court.
4 The Parties are further ORDERED to submit a joint statement not to exceed 10 pages
5 within 7 days of their meet and confer. That joint statement must address the following
6 issues: (1) what issues remain pending before the Court, (2) how the Parties intend to 7 resolve those issues, and (3) a proposed schedule for adjudicating those issues.

10      DATED this 6th day of ~~August~~ September, 2016.
